Received of Caroline Weston two dollars and fifty cents on account for the Liberator.

Oliver Johnson.

Boston, July 30, '34.

Received of Caroline Weston one dollar for the Non-Resistant.

O. Johnson.

Boston, July 30, 34.

155

MS. A. 9. 2. 24

longer partaker of her evil deeds,

& forms no part of the plan of abolitionists to destroy the or the end is to interfere with any ecclesiastical organization
one where such organization declares that the supporter of slavery
One more A third course remains - the great Abolitionists may be too feeble & faint hearted to adhere to their own principles
they may shrink from the sentiment uttered in the quotation
"is that church which lends strength to the spoiler then" they may retire in confusion from their assault on the kingdom of darkness and offer a few efforts to accomplish the work in a more politic manner & one that shall expose them to